

GSP good news & significant interventions Nov/Dec 2017

Saturday 4th November – A very quiet night. 2 pairs of flip flops and 7 bottles of water were given out and 16 bottles/glass cleared away. Lots of compliments.

Saturday 11th November – Contacted the parents of a very drunk young man to come and pick him up. He was from outside of Gloucester so we walked him to the station as it is fairly easy to locate. 7 pairs of flip flops and 5 bottles of water were given out and 14 bottles/glass cleared away.

Saturday 18th November – A very quiet night. The police were out in a van. We had several stops and chats and also walked a young man to ATIK to see if his friends were there. 16 bottles of water were given out and 26 bottles/glass cleared away.

Friday 24th November – Exceptionally quiet night. Several good conversations but finished early. 1 pair of flip flops and 3 bottles of water were given out and 10 bottles/glass cleared away.

Saturday 25th November – Prayed with a young man who had problems in his life and had considered suicide. Several chats and high fives. 9 pairs of flip flops and 5 bottles of water were given out and 45 bottles/glass cleared away.

Saturday 2nd December – Assisted a very drunk lady until the police came and kindly took her home. 10 pairs of flip flops and 4 bottles of water were given out and 44 bottles/glass cleared away.

Saturday 9th December – No patrol due to ill health

Saturday 16th December – Received radio message to attend a drunken man lying in an alcove. He was roused and given water. Team returned later during second shift and he had gone. Young man from Wales just out of prison asked advice as he had no money and no job. Team gave him mittens and advised him to go to the Salvation Army in the morning. Very busy night, lots of people out on Eastgate Street. 5 pairs of flip flops and 6 bottles of water were given out and 36 bottles/glass cleared away.

Friday 22nd December – 2 people needed first aid. A drunken disabled man was found slumped against a wall. He was taken to the taxi rank but they refused to accept him. His mother was contacted and another taxi service contracted to pick him up. Team stayed with him helped him into the taxi when it arrived. 11 pairs of flip flops and 15 bottles of water were given out and 70 bottles/glass cleared away.

Saturday 23rd December – 1 aggressive situation observed – it resolved. A drunk man who had fallen and injured his head was helped up. The police agreed to take him to the hospital. Lots of compliments from police and some groups of young men. 5 pairs of flip flops and 8 bottles of water were given out and 75 bottles/glass cleared away.

Sunday 31st December (New Years Eve) – No significant incidents or conversations. Many exchanges of 'Happy New Year'. 5 pairs of flip flops and 7 bottles of water were given out and 38 bottles/glass cleared away.