 - c) Where you make donations or pay for activities or merchandise, financial identifiers such as bank account numbers, payment card numbers, payment/transaction identifiers, policy numbers and claim numbers.
 - d) If you are an employee, financial information such as salary, record of earnings, tax code, tax and benefit contributions, expenses claimed, amounts insured and amounts claimed.
 - e) Other operational personal data created, obtained, or otherwise processed in the course of the local initiative carrying out its activities including, but not limited to, recordings of telephone conversations, IP addresses and website visit histories, logs of visitors, incident logs, injuries and insurance claims.

- f) The data we process will likely include sensitive personal data because as a Christian organisation our volunteers are in the main Christian, which may be suggestive of your religious beliefs
 - g) The local initiative may have to process criminal records and other judicial records.
7. Whilst we rely on your consent as a legal basis for this processing, we will also have a legitimate interest for processing of your personal data in order to assist you in fulfilling your role with the local initiative, including administrative support or if processing is required for compliance with a legal obligation. Whilst exercising our legitimate interest we will always take into account your interests, rights and freedoms. As a religious organisation we are also permitted to process information about your religious beliefs to administer your role within the local initiative.
 8. Where your personal data is used other than in accordance with one of these legal bases, we will obtain your consent to that use.
 9. Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential. It will only be shared with third parties including other data controllers where it is necessary for the performance of our tasks or where you first give your prior consent. It is likely that we will need to share your data with Ascension Trust as the umbrella body for Street Pastors. We may also need to share your contact details within the local initiative in order to facilitate your role. We may share your personal data with your church leader for the purpose of your pastoral care.
 10. We may also share your personal data with our agents, servants and contractors. For example, we may ask a commercial provider to send out newsletters on our behalf, or to maintain our database software.
 11. It is not envisaged that your personal data will be transferred to any party outside the UK, but in the event that this needs to be done your consent will be sought beforehand. Any electronic personal data transferred to countries or territories outside the EU will only be placed on systems complying with the measures giving equivalent protection of personal rights either through the international agreements or contracts approved by the EU. Our website is also accessible from overseas so on occasion some personal data (for example in a newsletter) may be accessed from overseas.
 12. We will retain your personal data for as long as you remain in your role or any other role with Stratford-upon-Avon Street Pastors where the information may be required and for a period of time after any role with the organisation ceases in line with our Data Retention Policy. Elements of your data may be retained beyond this initial retention period by the organisation for historical, statistical or research purposes.
 13. We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so. We may keep some records for an extended period of time, for example it is current best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 7 years to support HMRC audits. In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it and we will delete it when it is no longer required.
 14. As a person whose personal data Stratford upon Avon Street Pastors holds (a data subject) you have the following rights:
 - a) The right to be informed of your rights as a data subject through this data privacy notice.
 - b) The right of access to the information that Stratford-upon-Avon Street Pastors holds on you.
